

0 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9

1
2
3
4
5
6

1
2
3
4
5
6

Diagram illustrating the 100 Prisoners Problem setup. Two 10x10 grids are shown, representing the possible locations of the 100 prisoners. The top grid has columns labeled 0 through 9 and rows labeled 1 through 6. The bottom grid has columns labeled 1 through 6 and rows labeled 1 through 6, with an ellipsis below the column labels indicating the remaining columns.

Diagram illustrating the 100 Prisoners Problem setup. Two 10x10 grids are shown, representing the possible locations of prisoners. The top grid has columns labeled 0 through 9 and rows labeled 1 through 6. The bottom grid has columns labeled 1 through 9 and rows labeled 1 through 6, with an ellipsis below the column labels.

0 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9

1
2
3
4
5
6

1
2
3
4
5
6

• • •

[illegible]